What are your interests in this course? What would you like to see covered (focus on math/applications/computational skills or a little bit of everything or …)?

What is your computational background?

How is your background in algebraic topology/category theory/sheaves/etc)?